Aims:
The aim of this assignment is to:
- provide you with the opportunity to reflect on your learning, so that you can identify areas of need and further enhance your learning.

Value:
This assignment is worth 6.6% of the total assessment for the unit.
This assignment will be carried out INDIVIDUALLY

Due Date:
Week 13 at the start of your studio session
- Tuesday Studio – 31st May, 2005
- Wednesday Studio – 1st June, 2005
- Thursday Studio – 2nd June, 2005

Assessment policies:
For details regarding assignment cover sheets, acknowledgement of sources, extensions, submission, etc… please refer to the IMS1501 unit outline.

Assessment Criteria:
- You will be assessed on your ability to reflect on what you have learnt over the last 13 weeks in this unit. The reflection should not just be a list of the activities that you have carried out.

Assignment Outline:
Write a 1000 word reflective journal for the last 13 weeks of this unit, with a specific focus on the last 3 weeks.

MARKS WILL BE DEDUCTED FOR JUST LISTING ACTIVITIES WITHOUT ADEQUATE REFLECTION (See questions below for help with reflection)

Your reflection should consider the knowledge and skills you have used and acquired, to help you conduct the range of activities required in this unit.
The following questions should be used to help direct your reflection:
- How did you develop the knowledge and skills required to conduct the activities in this unit?
- Were you able to put into practice knowledge and skills that you developed during the unit?
- What further skills do you believe are still required to be a successful IT professional?
- What did you learn about the tasks/processes that you followed to complete the various activities in this unit?
- What challenges did you encounter?
- If you did overcome them, how did you do it?
- If not, how will you deal with similar challenges in future?
- What changes have occurred since you carried out the SWOT ANALYSIS in your 1st studio session?
